

4 February Day I: Taking Stock

Focus: What are the core components of 'inclusive' green economic development from a global perspective?

08.30 – 09.15 Registration and Networking

09.15 – 10.00 Meeting Opening and Welcome

Learning from ten years of experience as a global coalition, our opening session will answer why 'inclusion' is so critical for the transition to greener economies.

Welcome address: Going Small to Go Big: Changes in India are World Changes

Zeenat Niazi, Vice President, Development Alternatives

Framing the debate, laying expectations

Stuart Worsley, Programme Director, Green Economy Coalition

Green Economy Coalition at 10 years old

Emily, Oliver, Green Economy Coalition

10.00 – 11.15 Taking Stock of Inclusive Green Economy Transitions

Hear experiences of inclusive transitions as they are happening around the world via the GEC hub partners based in Peru, Caribbean, South Africa, Uganda, Senegal, Mongolia and India.

Facilitator: Stuart Worsley, Programme Director, Green Economy Coalition

Nicole Leotaud, CANARI, Trinidad and Tobago, Caribbean

Anshul Bhamra, Development Alternatives, India

Odonchimeg Ikhbayar, ECRC, Mongolia

Luis Miguel Prado, Libelula, Peru

Leslie Forsyth, FNI, Peru

Racine Kane, IUCN, Senegal

Gaylor Montmasson-Clair, TIPS, South Africa

Arthur Bainomugisha, ACODE, Uganda

11.15 – 11.30 Tea Break

11.30 – 13.00 How Smaller Enterprises are Building an Inclusive Transition

A closer examination of the role that green micro, small and medium sized enterprises play in accelerating the transition towards Inclusive Green Economies. What policies and approaches are enabling local green enterprises in different contexts? What are the barriers and the sticking points, and how are they being overcome?

13.00 – 14.30 Lunch and Networking

The Global Transition

14.30 – 16.30 Taking a step back, we will look at the major trends, investment flows and policy changes on the global green economy horizon globally and nationally. What do these changes mean for us all? How can we track this transition across different geographies? And how do we grow our movement so that it is commensurate with the scale of the challenges?

Oliver Greenfield, Emily Benson, Green Economy Coalition

Policy Partner Voice: Steven Stone, Chief, Resources & Markets Branch, Economy Division, UNEP

16.30 – 17:00 Reflections from the Day

